

Privacy is privacy. If I have done business with someone, it should not mean an implicit right to deny me of my basic privacy. Any legitimate business should respect that. Please keep the telephone privacy law and let it have teeth. Commercialism has gone too far.